

Possessive pronouns

Using pronouns to show who things belong to mine, yours, his, hers, ours, theirs; one/ones; no/none

In this unit you learn to use pronouns to talk about who things belong to. You also learn about using one, ones, no and none.

You use possessive pronouns (mine, yours, his, hers, ours, theirs) when you talk about who things belong to.

It's not my DVD. It's his.

See that car over there. It's ours.

Give me back that book. It's mine!

You can also use of before a possessive pronoun.

I know Fiona very well. She's a very good friend of mine.

Is it true that our new teacher is a neighbour of yours?

Subject pronoun	Possessive pronoun
I	mine
you	yours
he	his
she	hers
we	ours
they	theirs

You use one and ones as pronouns for things.

A: I've got a few DVDs here. What do you want to watch?

B: Well, this one is really funny. Let's watch that.

A: These trainers all look the same. Which ones are yours?

B: The ones with the green stripes.

You can use no before a singular or a plural noun.

There were no people at the tennis courts yesterday.

There was no food left at the end of the party.

None (of) is always followed by a plural verb.

None of my friends are going to the concert next week.*

I need to go shopping. None of my clothes fit me.
