

Order and write the questions. Then match to the answers.

1 robots / Where / the / produced? / are

Where are the robots produced?

2 is / grown? / Where / rice

3 in / produced / is / factory? / What / this

4 those / T-shirts / Where / made? / are

5 grown / here? / coffee / Is

6 phones / Are / here? / produced /

___ No, it isn't.

___ They're made in India.

___ Cars are produced here.

1 They're produced in China.

___ Yes, they are.

___ It's grown in Japan.

Write a second sentence so that it has the same meaning, changing them from active to passive (A to P) or from passive to active (P to A).

1. Kevin recycles plastic and glass every week. (A to P)

2. Phones are used by people all over the world. (P to A)

3. These drivers don't collect and transport the paper to a recycling plant. (A to P)

4. Cans, bottles and other containers are produced in factories. (P to A)

5. The teachers usually help the new students. (A to P)
