Reading

7 Read the information about three jobs (A-C) and the questions (1-4) below. For every question choose the job it refers to and write the appropriate letter in the box. One of the jobs matches two questions.

OFFICE JOBS

A The CEO of Medicare is looking for a personal assistant to set up meetings and deal with clients. Candidates should have flexible schedules as the CEO needs to attend conferences in other countries and the personal assistant must accompany him. A minimum of five years' experience as a personal assistant is necessary, as well as a background in multinational business.

B Barnes and Harrison Law is seeking a law graduate to be the personal assistant to Mr Barnes. The position involves general office duties, such as dealing with paperwork and with our international clients. Perks include 30 days of annual leave, health insurance and all travel expenses paid. Previous experience in a similar role is a must. The office is open 9-6, but we often require our employees to work after 6 pm.

C Dr Wilkinson, Head of the Languages Department at Cardiff University, requires a personal assistant to organise meetings and appointments. The ideal applicant should be hard-working and reliable, but doesn't need to be a trained personal assistant. The ability to speak a foreign language is an advantage. Hours 9-5 during term time.

Which job is best for someone who

1	hasn't worked as a personal assistant before?
2	likes travelling abroad?
3	can't work in the evenings?
4	has a degree?
