

INDOOR AIR POLLUTANTS – VOCs

1. Which is correct?
 - A. Indoor air quality is always worse than outdoor air quality.
 - B. Indoor air quality can be five times worse than outdoor air quality.
 - C. Proper ventilation causes bottling-up effect.
 - D. Indoor air quality affects human health because of the level of air pollution.
2. What causes indoor air pollutants to be bottled up?
 - A. Indoor air quality
 - B. Proper ventilation
 - C. Poor ventilation
 - D. Bottling up effect
3. According to the passage, how many categories of indoor air pollutants are there?
 - A. 5
 - B. 6
 - C. 7
 - D. 8
4. Which is NOT right about VOCs?
 - A. They are the biggest category of indoor pollutants
 - B. They all contain carbon bonded to hydrogens.
 - C. They evaporate at room temperature
 - D. Carbon monoxide is an example of VOCs.
5. Which is right about radon?
 - A. It can be categorized into VOCs.
 - B. It is created by household activities.
 - C. It must be tested in all outdoor places.
 - D. It is a highly toxic gas.