Holidays at home

Official figures show that the number of people (0) international flights is decreasing, and that this is (1) in significant changes to holidaying habits.

As the cost of air tickets increases, it appears that more and more families are choosing to (2) their summer holidays at home. People are also becoming more (3) of the harm that flying does to the environment, and see it as a way of helping to (4) the planet, too.

For many parents a summer with no airport queues or overcrowded resorts may seem attractive, but the idea might well be less (5) with their teenage children, who are probably (6) to flying off to the Mediterranean or Miami as soon as school breaks up. So, the question is, how can young people (7) lots of fun when so much will be closed for the holidays, and so many of their friends are (8) to be away?

The answer may lie at the local sports centre. Nowadays, many centres organise summer activities aimed at young people (9) either on indoor or outdoor sports. These might range, for instance, from playing table tennis to (10) mountain-biking. As well as being healthy and enjoyable, taking part in activities like these is also an excellent way to (11) new friends. For the most popular activities, though, it is advisable to (12) early for a place – perhaps two or three months in advance.

A short history of tattooing

Tattoos, (0) which some people call "body art", have become more and more popular in recent years. In (13) of the pain caused by having a needle make hundreds of holes in their skin, millions of people (14) vary widely in age and background are nowadays having their bodies decorated with ink in all kinds of ways.

Many of today's young people, (15) parents were the first generation to experiment with tattoos, see it as a way of expressing their individuality, and in (16) to do this, they are constantly looking for new styles and designs. (17) to this increasing demand, tattoo studios have appeared in many towns and villages.

(18) people tend to think of it as a modern practice, tattooing has in fact been around for a long time. There is evidence of tattoos being worn in Siberia over 4,000 years ago, as (19) as in Ancient Egypt at that time, and it is thought to have existed in Japan 10,000 years ago. Even (20) , it was not until the late 18th century, (21) Captain James Cook sailed to Polynesia, that Europeans took an interest.

It was on the island of Tahiti, (22) tattooing had an important role in society, that Cook and his crew first saw tattooed men and women, and (23) of that, the English word comes from the Tahitian word tatau. Ever since then, sailors have had tattoos done, often (24) show the distant places they have visited.
