DEFINITION

I. Fill in the blanks with one most suitable word, or a punctuation (dấu câu)

1. The respiratory system , which consists _____ anatomical features such as the nose, nasal passages, pharynx, larynx, trachea, bronchi, and lungs, is what makes respiration possible.
2. Installing an air-conditioning system in your home _____ selecting the right equipment and then putting it in.
3. Air-conditioning is a process that _____ making the air in a building or vehicle cooler and drier.
4. A heat exchanger can _____ as an apparatus used to transfer heat from one medium to another.
5. Sick building syndrome is characterized _____ headaches and respiratory problems.
6. A damper, _____ a valve, can regulate drafts.
7. HVAC systems are those _____ combine heating, ventilation, and air conditioning.
8. Pollutants refer _____ substances in air, water, or soil that are harmful to humans and other organisms.
9. Emissions (gases or other substances that are sent out into the air_____ are increasing worldwide.
10. By _____ , a dehumidifier is a machine that removes water from the air in a building.
11. Residence time, a term _____ to mean the amount of time water is held in a batch reactor, plug flow reactor, etc., relates to wastewater treatment and water treatment.
12. Velocity_____ the rate at which something moves in a particular direction over a period of time—is an important consideration.

II. Put the following parts of the sentences into the correct places.

A. or minor arts
B. pretax income
C. commonly known as mad cow disease
D. or higher
E. those materials or components needed to generate finished products
F. post-tax income
G. Indoor air pollutants
H. an entertaining and somewhat comical dance popular in parts of the Western world
I. a sexually transmitted virus with more than one hundred strains
J. the god of fire
K. a famous lion and tourist attraction at Hwange National Park in Zimbabwe

LIVEWORKSHEETS

L. Epstein-Barr

1. The artworks described in Iliad are often placed in a category of cultural materials, ……., in contrast to the fine, ……., arts.
2. Homer devotes many lines of praise to the artifice of Hephaistos, ……., crafts, and metalworking.
3. ……., or EBV, is a type of herpes virus which causes mononucleosis.
4. The vast majority of oncogenic-virus-based cancers are from the human papilloma virus (HPV), …….
5. Bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE), ……., is a fatal degenerative disease that attacks the central nervous systems of cows.
6. The chicken dance—……. —is a concept that is nonrivalrous.
7. In July 2015, animal lovers worldwide became outraged at the death of Cecil, …….
8. Another important distinction is between gross income (…….) and net income (…….)
9. Free trade also makes it easier for a manufacturer to get intermediate goods— …….
10. ……. can be categorized as mold and other allergens; bacteria and viruses; tobacco smoke; hazardous gases; harmful older building materials; and volatile organic compounds.

LIVEWORKSHEETS