

LEFT-HANDED BURGER

Read the text and choose the appropriate word for each gap..

A well-known fast food chain recently published a full-page advertisement announcing that they were (1) _____ a new item to their menu - a "Left-Handed Burger", (2) _____ specifically for their left-handed customers. (3) _____ to the advertisement, the (4) _____ of the new burger were identical to those of the original burger, (5) _____ were the ingredients. The difference was that the ingredients had been rotated by 180 degrees to (6) _____ left-handed people to handle the burger without (7) _____.

The following day, April 2nd, the fast food store (8) _____ that the story had been invented as an April Fool's trick and the left-handed burger didn't exist. (9) _____, restaurants reported that they had been visited by several thousand customers (10) _____ the new burger. Simultaneously, there were many other (11) _____ customers who insisted that staff served them with their own right-handed (12) _____. It just goes to show how readily people can be (13) _____ even on April Fool's Day.

