

End of Year Exam
June 2023
Advanced

Click on the microphone and read the sentence out loud.
Haga clic en el micrófono y lea la oración en voz alta.

1. There are three schools in our city.
2. I have a yellow jacket and a white coat.
3. The stove in the kitchen is very good.

Choose the correct order for these adjectives.
Elija el orden correcto para estos adjetivos.

Blue, big, school BAG
Spanish, old, black BOOK
Pink, leather, new, Italian SHOES
Yellow, Chinese, five BOWLS
Metal, reading, small LAMP

Where are the items located?
¿Dónde se encuentran los artículos?

The green vase is _____ the coffee table.

The blue vase with flowers is _____ the sofa.

The book is _____ the coffee table.

The pictures are _____ the wall.

The blue chair is _____ the fireplace.

The pillows are _____ the sofa.

The flowers are _____ the vase.

The coffee table is _____ of the sofa.

Fill in with the correct pronouns.

Rellena con los pronombres correctos.

My neighbor is a nice man. _____ goes to work early in the morning.

Juan invited Alicia and me to the party. _____ decided to go with _____.

He has a daughter. _____ is very smart.

Juan has a puppy. He feeds _____ in the morning.

Maria loves her husband. _____ is an electrician and has _____ own business.

My wife buys milk on Fridays. _____ buys _____ from the milk truck.

Matching Emotions Vocabulary

Vocabulario de emociones coincidentes

A	La envidia		Gratitude
B	La preocupación		Happiness
C	La felicidad		Sadness
D	La tristeza		Jealousy
E	El meido		Fear
F	La calma		Concern; worry
G	El estrés		Tranquil
H	El agradecimiento		Stress
I	El amor		Envy
J	El celoso		Love

Read the excerpt from a story and answer the questions.

Lea el extracto de una historia y responde las preguntas.

I was walking back home from a friend's house enjoying the sunshine, no job pressure, a good retirement life. I was carrying a glass canning jar with a wonderful, pickled lemon concoction inside, a gift from a friend. In the other hand, I had a square, hard plastic CD case with some interesting music save to it. One minute I'm healthy and upright 30 yards from my door; the next I'm lying on the cobblestones with some serious injuries. The glass jar had broken upon hitting the cobblestones; I first noticed the large piece of it was embedded into my left palm. I was dripping with pickled lemon juice. Seemed bad enough until I looked at my right hand. The innocent CD case had gouged a large chunk out of my right palm and sliced open the area below my thumb severing an artery. I knew I had to get home, but how was I going to get up? Given that this was low season, our block was almost vacant. I couldn't push myself off the ground due to the hand injuries. I did manage to pull the glass out of my hand, though, so I could partially sit up. Lucky for me, two workers a few houses down had heard the crash of the glass. Realizing that I needed help, they came running. They were able to pull me up and help me home. Amazingly, a neighbor called to just ask a question and learned of my accident. She came running, avoiding cobblestones, with a first aid kit. After a few minutes trying to stem the bleeding, we agreed that I needed to get to a doctor quickly. So, off we went. Our first experience with emergency Mexican care.

Where was the author coming from?

What was she carrying?

Which of the two things she was carrying did the most damage?

Who first came to help her?

How did the neighbor learn of the problem?

Which indefinite pronoun is correct?

Use: no one, anyone, someone, nowhere, anywhere, somewhere, anything, something, nothing

¿Qué pronombre indefinido es correcto?

Look! There is _____ waiting for you.

I'm sure my keys are _____ in the house.

John is lazy. He doesn't do _____ at all.

_____ has done the dishes. They are still dirty!

Listen! I think _____ is trying to open the door.

This is very easy. _____ can stop me from finishing it!

Hasn't _____ seen the dog?

Poor baby! We have to do _____ to help him.

Fill in the verb chart below using HE as the pronoun.

Follow the example.

Complete la tabla de verbos a continuación usando HE.

Sigue el ejemplo.

The Verb	Past Tense	Present Tense	Present Progressive	Future
To have	He had	He has	He is having	He will have
To do
To go
To get
To come

In English, write at least 5 sentences about learning English. You might answer any of these questions or just write however it works for you.

How difficult is it?

How important is it?

What's the best part of learning English?

What more do you want to learn?