

Adjectives + preposition at + noun

Part 1: Write 3 things you are good at and 3 thing you are bad at.

EXAMPLE: I am bad a parking in reverse / I am good at dancing tango.

VOCABULARY EXAMPLE BOX
cooking	dancing	playing basketball
singing	solving puzzles	public speaking

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Part 2: Rewrite each sentence using "good at" or "bad at" and then answer whether the person is good or bad using the verb and noun provided.

Example: Anastasia can't swim for more than 2 hours.

Rewrite: Anastasia is bad at swimming.

1. David can play the piano.
Rewrite: _____
2. Maria can not speak multiple languages fluently.
Rewrite: _____
3. Alex can solve complex mathematical problems.
Rewrite: _____
4. Sophia can not dance ballet gracefully.
Rewrite: _____
5. Carlos can not repair electronic devices.
Rewrite: _____
6. Emily can write captivating stories.
Rewrite: _____

Part 3: Read the following case study and answer the questions.

Choose the most suitable adjective + "at" combination for each scenario.

VOCABULARY BOX
good at	bueno en	weak at	débil en
bad at	malo en	skilled at	hábil en
strong at	fuerte en	talented at	talentoso en

Case Study:

Emma is a young professional who recently started her own business. She faces various challenges and experiences different emotions along the way.

1. Emma is _____ managing her time effectively.
2. She is _____ networking and building connections.
3. Emma feels _____ handling customer complaints.
4. She is _____ analyzing market trends and competition.
5. Emma is _____ negotiating business deals.
6. She is _____ multitasking and prioritizing tasks.