

HARD – HARDLY, LATE – LATELY

Choose “hard/ hardly/ late/ lately” to fill in the blank in each sentence.

1. The city is flooded. It's been raining really for five straight hours.
2. The train arrived
3. You have been out lately.
4. He hasn't been to cinema
5. I've worked very
6. She's got any money left.
7. You come home today.
8. I think you are working too You should go on a holiday to relax.
9. He's been very sick
10. It is to speak to our teacher. I don't know what to say.
11. He is often for work.
12. He has been working too He should stop and go to bed earlier.
13. She could walk after the accident.
14. We studied for the test.
15. I thought Paul did well in his test. He studied really
16. Well, I couldn't find my classroom, so I got to the classroom a bit and then I had to sing a song in front of the other students!
17. We had a breakfast.
18. We got the train home
19. I got the train home.
20. We ever see them anymore.
21. Have you been doing anything interesting?
22. I could hear her at the back.
23. I asked Tim if he'd seen Jackie but he shook his head.
24. I've been in high spirits
25. You've eaten anything.
26. Heating the clay makes it
27. The instructions are printed so small I can read them.

28. Her handwriting is very to read.
29. She's developed some very strange habits
30. He's a man to please.
31. We had a very winter last year.
32. I watch any television, apart from news and current affairs.
33. Don't be too on him - he's new to the job.
34. I feel sorry for the kids, too - they've had a time.
35. I found her story rather to swallow.

Ms. Ha - 0982194748