Sophie's grandfather always (1) ..... (to be) a man of few words. He was the type of person who would rather show than tell, and Sophie admired him for it. As she grew older, she began to understand that her grandfather's quiet demeanor (2) ..... (to root) in his past. He (3) ..... (to live) through some tough times and (4) ..... (to learn) that sometimes it (5) ..... (to be) better to keep things to yourself. One day, Sophie (6) ..... (to go) (7) ..... (to visit) her grandfather at his farm. She noticed that he (8) ..... (to seem) agitated and asked if something (9) ..... (to be) wrong. He (10) (hesitate) ..... (11)..... (to answer), but then (12) ..... (to tell) her that he (13) ..... (to wait) for the delivery of some important equipment for his farm, but it (14) ..... (not to arrive) yet. He feared that he (15) ..... (mod.v./ misunderstand) when he placed the order and that the items (16) ..... (mod. v/ delay) or lost.
Sophie could see that her grandfather (17) ..... (to worry), so she decided to help him out. She (18) ..... (to suggest) (19) ..... (to call) the supplier to check on the status of the delivery. Her grandfather agreed, and they made the call together. It (20) ..... (to turn out) that the supplier indeed (21) ..... (to misunderstand) the order, but they were able to correct the mistake and guarantee that the equipment (22) ..... (to arrive) soon.
Sophie's grandfather (23) ..... (to relieve) and grateful for her help. He realized that sometimes it was okay to involve others and take risks, even if it (24) ..... (to mean) (25) ..... (to ask) for help. He also (26) ..... (to admit) that he (27)..... (to dread) the idea of having to postpone some of his farm work if the equipment didn't arrive on time. Sophie smiled and told him that she (28) ..... (to aim) (29) ..... (to be) like him someday - someone who wasn't afraid to take action and get things done.
As they walked back to the farmhouse, Sophie couldn't help but think that her grandfather (30) ..... (to be) quite the risk-taker in his youth. She knew that he (31) ..... (to detest) (32) ..... (to be) idle and always encouraged her to do her best. If he (33) ..... (to know) how much she looked up to him, she was sure he (34) ..... (to be) proud.

LIVEWORKSHEETS