CLARIFIERS

Match the part of the sentence on the left with the clarifier on the right.

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. In terms of funding, the charity receives most of its money from private donations; that is .....say, | A. the more an employee believed that the office space was appropriately heated and cooled, the more work he or she got done in a given period of time. |
| 2. It was concluded last year that the rate of occurrence of asthma among children increased substantially over the last 25 years. In .....words, | B. bacteria from water drawn from a polluted source grew and was delivered to every unfortunate soul who drank tap water. |
| 3. The way in which the sickness spread was through contamination of the city's water system. To be .....clear, | C. it reports higher profits than the majority of companies in the area. |
| 4. The data demonstrated that there was a correlation between the employees' perception of the appropriateness of office temperature and their levels of productivity. .....clarify, | D. The number of children affected by this condition went up a lot during that time period. |
| 5. The business is one of the strongest performing companies in the region. This .....that | E. unexplained complete shutdowns of a system |
| 6. Faulty ventilation systems can cause the air quality in buildings to be inadequately regulated. This becomes all the more .....upon reviewing | F. a situation in which building occupants report a variety of health problems that seem to be linked to the indoor environment |
| 7. The findings were deemed to be profoundly impactful on a local scale and deeply resonant globally. .....simpler terms, | G. almost all of the funds that flow in come from individual citizens or companies. |
| 8. Customer-generated electricity (through solar panels, small wind-turbines, etc.) is a burgeoning factor in the energy market. This .....readily apparent when we consider that | H. it could outrun pretty much every other vehicle on the road. |
| 9. Given the size of its engine, the truck is extremely powerful. To .....it another way, | I. rooftop solar generation carries more than 30 percent of the grid load in some locations. |
| 10. Many opposed the recycling policy. To .....explain, | J. studies that blame such systems for more than 20 percent of air-quality complaints in workplace settings. |
| 11. As demonstrated in Figure 4, the building envelope is characterized by several breaches. This .....some explanation. | K. Because the building is not well sealed—due to cracks in the structure and small gaps around doors and windows—a significant amount of outside air enters it every hour. |
| 12. Human error or technical problems can cause system failures, i.e., | L. their opposition was due to the hefty fine incurred if they didn't participate. |
| 13. Employees who had reported symptoms of sick building syndrome— that is, .....—were awarded settlements. | M. the results were significant. |

LIVEWORKSHEETS