

6- U3 – Word formation 2

Simon and James are talking about a game James lost yesterday.

Simon: Tough game yesterday, James. How are you feeling?

James: Not great, Simon. I lost.

Simon: Sorry to hear that. But remember, losing doesn't make you a _____. It's just part of the game.
(lose)

James: Yeah, but it still hurts.

Simon: I know, James. But try to focus on the positive. You have a _____ for playing at such a high level.
(give)

James: That's true, but...

Simon: _____ is never easy, but it's important to keep things in perspective. _____ gives us both joy and pain. (lose) (natural)

James: Hmm, I never _____ about it like that before.
(think)

Simon: And sports can teach us _____ lessons about character. Whether you're a _____ or doer, learning how to _____ gracefully is crucial.
(value) (think) (lost)

James: I see what you mean. Maybe this _____ will help me grow as a person.
(lost)

Simon: Exactly! Your _____ and _____ shape your reality. Keep pushing yourself, James - who knows where it might take you!
(person) (think)

James: Thanks, Simon. You always know just what to say.
