

Challenge 3 > > > :

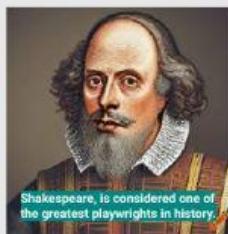

Read attentively the ten written sentences below the portraits, they are scrambled.
Listen to your tutor or audio files pronounce the complete sentences as an example.
Write the complete sentence with the right name at the beginning on the main chat.
Pronounce your complete sentence by raising your hand on the session's conference.

Gandhi, was a prominent leader of India's independence movement.

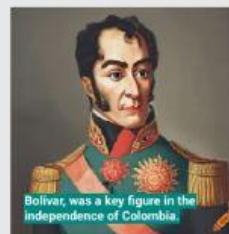

Mandela, was a South African anti-apartheid politician.

Shakespeare, is considered one of the greatest playwrights in history.

Da Vinci, was a renowned Italian genius, artist, and inventor.

Bolívar, was a key figure in the independence of Colombia.

... contributed to science and invention.

... had a lasting impact on world literature.

... inspired civil rights around the world.

... made iconic paintings during the renaissance.

... went on numerous military campaigns.

... fought against racial inequality in his country.

... helped the foundation of several nations.

... led a nonviolent freedom movement.

... spent 27 years in prison for his activism.

... wrote plays about the human condition.

