Part 3 Listen and look. There is one example.

Where did Harry's grandma take pictures of these people?

BOY: Hello, Grandma. Wow! You've got a lot of photos, haven't you? That's a funny one!
WOMAN: Yes! I took this at a party many years ago.
BOY: Who is it?
WOMAN: Grandpa! He's dancing very badly. It was when we were at university.
BOY: Look at his hair!
WOMAN: Yes. It was very long then.

Can you see the letter A? Now you listen and write a letter in each box.

BOY: I like this one very much. What a great picture!
WOMAN: Yes. This is your cousin Sophia's volleyball team. I took this one at the restaurant.
BOY: Why were you there?
WOMAN: Oh we went there for dinner after a game. Her team's really good. They win most of their matches.

BOY: This one looks interesting.
WOMAN: Yes, that's one of Grandpa's friends. His name's William.
BOY: I haven't met him.
WOMAN: Oh, OK. Well, all of us often drive to the countryside so we can go for long walks across the fields there. But I took this at the old castle near here.

BOY: And where did you take this one?
WOMAN: Perhaps at the library.
BOY: Are you sure?
WOMAN: No, actually ... I know. It's my friend Jane at the office where she began her new job last year.
BOY: She looks tired!
WOMAN: Well, she doesn't enjoy it. She's looking for another job now. She wants to be a designer!

BOY: This is my favourite. Is this Uncle Oliver?
WOMAN: That's right. On holiday, last summer. He's got the backpack which he uses when he goes walking in the mountains. I bought that for him!
BOY: Did you?
WOMAN: Yes, but he was in the forest here. Look.

BOY: Did you take this picture, too?
WOMAN: Yes, I did. You can see Aunt Lucy in it.
BOY: But she looks so young!
WOMAN: Well she was only 16 then. She slept in a tent while she worked on that farm in the school holidays.
BOY: Brilliant! I'd like to do that one day!
