

This is Mario Mancini. He is my cousin's colleague. Read and choose TRUE or FALSE.

I'm Mario Mancini and I'm from Rome, Italy. I'm 28 years old and I'm a chef in a pizzeria. I'm hardworking and confident. I love my job. I get up early in the morning. I read the news and I have breakfast at home. We make lunch for the clients. They love our pizzas. Then, I check my e-mails and go home. I ride my bike around the park in the afternoon. At home, I watch TV and post comments on my social networks. I make lunch and I go to bed early. Sunday is my free day, I do housework and I walk around the park on Sunday morning. I have lunch with my parents. I meet my friends on Sunday afternoon.
