

NAME

DATE

- 1 Identify the parts of the computer.

headphones – CPU – keyboard – mouse – printer – screen

- 2 Underline the part of the computer where the hard drive is.

- ☐ printer
 ☐ CPU
 ☐ screen

- 3 Tick the function of the hard drive.

- ☐ It connects all the other parts of the computer.
☐ It stores documents and images.

- 4 Write true (T) or false (F). What things can you do using a computer?

- ☐ Buy tickets to the cinema.
☐ Play a videogame.
☐ Make a video call to your grandma.
☐ Write a summary of this unit.
☐ Play basketball.

- 5 What organs are you looking after when you alternate doing your homework with screens and without them?

.....

6 Complete.

The is a network of millions of computers, tablets, smartphones, etc. connected around the world.

7 Complete using these words.

addiction – cyberbullying

- Someone uses the internet to send messages to scare, threaten or upset other people. This is called
- Someone uses their computer, tablet or smartphone for many hours and cannot stop using it. This is called to new technologies.

8 How can you avoid addiction to new technologies?
Circle the correct options.

- a) Block certain email addresses so that you do not receive unwanted messages.
- b) Avoid using your computer, tablet or smartphone while you are doing your homework.
- c) Use your free time to do activities without your computer, tablet or smartphone.

9 What can you avoid when you visit only websites you can trust? Colour in.

viruses

inappropriate contents

addiction

cyberbullying

10 How can you avoid cyberbullying? Tick the correct options.

- a) Do not give personal information. ☐
- b) Block certain email addresses to avoid unwanted messages. ☐
- c) Use an antivirus application. ☐
- d) Talk to your family or other adults if you suffer cyberbullying. ☐