

FACTUAL REPORT

TASK 1

Listen to each text and then complete the table by choosing appropriate box!

Text	What is the text about			What is being described
	Man-made	Animal	Natural Phenomena
1
2
3
4
5

TASK 2

Listen the text in task 1 again to complete the blanks!

Text 1

Pasta is a food made from _____ flour or rice flour and water. _____ sometimes has eggs in it. It _____ usually cooked in hot water before _____ eaten. Pasta is also the national _____ of Italy and has also been _____ in many parts of Asia for a _____ time. It is usually eaten in _____, fried, or in soup. Pasta comes in _____ different shapes and sizes.

Text 2

A giraffe is a mammal from _____. It is the tallest animal that loves _____ land. Giraffes can be 4.8 to _____ meters tall and wight up to _____. Giraffes have very long _____ and legs. Their fur is a light _____ or brownish colour with dark patches. _____ eat mostly leaves from tall trees, _____ they can reach because of their _____ legs and long necks, they also _____ small insects and fruit. Another interesting fact about giraffes is that they can _____ without water for weeks.

Text 3

Lightning is a powerful electrical discharge _____ during a thunderstorm. The electric current is _____ hot and causes the air around it _____ expand very quickly, which in turn _____ thunder. Sometimes it happens between clouds. _____ lightning strikes, the surface rubs electrons from the _____, and a spark of electricity shoots from the _____ to the surface. In a thunderstorm, the lower _____ have as many as 100 million _____ of electricity in them.

Text 4

Electricity is a force caused by an electrical _____. It is a form of energy which _____ use to power machines and electrical devices. _____ the charges are not moving, it is _____ static electricity. When the charges are moving _____ are an electric current, and are sometimes called _____ electricity. Electricity is mostly generated in _____ called power stations. Most power stations _____ heat to boil water into steam which _____ a steam engine. The steam engine's turbine turns a _____ called a "generator". Generators have wires inside _____ spin inside the magnetic field. Electromagnetic induction _____ electricity to flow through the wires

Text 5

A mosquito is a type of fly. It is the _____ name of a family of flies in the _____ Diptera. Usually both male and female mosquitos _____ on nectar and plant juices. The females _____ on warm-blooded animals, pierce a capillary, _____ inject saliva to stop the blood coagulating. Then _____ suck up and eat the blood. Mosquitos _____ protein from a blood meal before they are able to _____ eggs