

Practice Worksheet

Synonyms and Antonyms

❖ Put the contextually suitable synonyms or antonyms of the bracketed words in the blanks.

1. The boss got terribly embarrassed because of his son who behaved _____ in the party. (sickeningly)
2. It is a/an _____ reality that millions of children in our country have a _____ future and prospect and the people having a/an _____ style of living are insensitive to the issue. (austere)
3. His experience and competency makes him _____ to the organization. (necessary)
4. He suffered from severe depression when his company losses reached their _____. (apex)
5. When the land was _____ illegally by the forces, the people living there had to _____ it. (desert)
6. She _____ at her amazing luck after being selected as an ambassador of foreign affairs. (murmur)
7. The lawyer got failed to _____ his client in the court who was _____ with murder. (allege)
8. The bright _____ child asked too many questions during his way to village. (curious)
9. The committee of reformers are planning to _____ the colonies again that were _____ by the disaster. (destroy)
10. When the Pak Army _____ towards the trenches of the enemies, it was so spine-chilling that they instantly planned to _____. (recede)

Words Used Instead of 'Very'

❖ Drag and drop the words from the box to complete the paragraph.

furious	amiable	overjoyed	innovative	profound	terrific
dull	bustling	leaden	lavish	thrilled	deafening

He got _____ (very excited) when he got the _____ (very great) news of his graduation ceremony to be held on Monday. His family was also _____ (very happy). They all planned to attend the ceremony which had _____ (very fancy) arrangements. During their way, they found that the roads were _____ (very crowded) and _____ (very noisy) because of some protest. All of a sudden, a car at the back bumped into their car which made his father _____ (very angry). Disappointedly, they decided to go back home and there he was in his room with a _____ (very heavy) heart and teary eyes.

Cooking Vocabulary

❖ Recall the functions of different kitchen tools and match the columns.

Column A	Column B
pestle and mortar	used for lifting and flipping food
sieve	used for crushing
spatula	used for straining
ladle	used for draining
colander	used for transferring liquid foods