

Ancient Egypt: Pharaoh

The Ancient Egyptians thought that their pharaohs were the son of Gods living on Earth. They ruled for as long as they lived and would choose an heir to take the throne after they died.

Pharaoh's Responsibilities:

- Command the army
- Trade with nearby nations
- Make Laws
- Punish Law Breakers
- Keep the Gods happy

The pharaohs are the reason that we have the pyramids. The pyramids are where many pharaohs were buried after they died.

Many pharaohs wore fancy headdresses. If you were a pharaoh, what would your headdress look like?

What law would you make if you were a pharaoh?
