

MATCH THE DEFINITIONS WITH THE WORDS.
	Something which is totally new
	The amount of money available for shopping
	Stealing items from a shop without paying for them
	Another word for 'buy'
	A reduction in the usual price of something
	A fashionable or luxury product made by or carrying the name of a famous designer
	A large metal basket on wheels used to carry items when shopping
	Something which is not new and has already been owned by someone else
	The area of a shop where goods are displayed or put on show
	A small ticket given as proof of purchase
	A version of a product which is made by one particular manufacturer
	Money which is returned to you if you return the goods you have purchased to the store
	A recipient for carrying home the items you have purchased
	When a shop sells items for less than their normal price
	The name given to a product by the manufacturer and under which it is sold
	A list of items we want or need to buy

Sale

Purchase

Shopping trolley

Shop lifting

Brand-name

Shopping list

Refund

Discount

Shopping bag

Receipt

Shopping budget

Purchase

Shop window

Second-hand

Brand

Brand-new

Designer-brand