

Main Verbs and Helping Verbs, page 2

Write main verb or helping verb to identify the underlined verb in each sentence.

1. The tiny curtain will slowly open.

2. Two figures are dancing into view.

3. The figures are called puppets.

4. Puppets can be made out of cloth and wood.

5. Our puppet theater may give three shows a year.

6. Each show is performed for four weekends.

7. New plays are rehearsed carefully.

8. I have become a puppeteer with the company.

9. I am memorizing lines and movements.

10. The new play was written in Spanish and English.

DIRECTIONS

Complete these sentences with a main verb and a helping verb from the box.

Drag and drop the verbs where they belong.

16. The roses today.

17. The garden beautiful next year.

18. Everyone during the summer.

19. A sturdy sunflower not support.

20. The apples already .