

Preterit or present perfect?

.....		 BE + V-ing
- Evènement passé, révolu, sans lien avec le présent. - Il est utilisé régulièrement avec des indications de temps telles que : yesterday, last year, two months ago, in 1717, when I was young, etc. ex: The festival started three years ago.	- Bilan au présent d'un évènement passé. - Il souligne les conséquences du passé dans le présent ou permet de parler de son expérience. - Il est souvent utilisé avec des expressions telles que : always, for, since, not yet, already, (ever) since + preterit, recently, never, just, up to now etc. ex: This festival has always attracted a diverse audience.	- Description d'une action qui a commencé dans le passé et qui est encore en cours au moment présent. - Il peut être utilisé avec : for, since, lately, now, etc ex: Look ! They are covered with colourful powders. They have been celebrating Holi !

Fill in the blanks paying attention to the temporal markers.

- The term cultural appropriation first in 1945. (appear)
- The debate more important over the years. (become)
- Mexicans Día de los muertos for centuries. (celebrate)
- They, they have got a lot of sweets, but it's time to come back home now. (trick-or-treat)
- Despite all the accusations, most Coldplay fans their music video shocking at all. (find)
- Since she a press conference, people her intentions. (make / understood)
- There always cultural exchanges. (be)
- He series since I back two hours ago. He must stop now ! (watch / come)
- I my Halloween costume yet. (choose)
- Cultural appropriation for a long time. (exist)
- We for hours, we are eager to attend the show now ! (queue)
- When she her video on TikTok, Morgan Bullock to get so many views ! (post / expect)
- However, some people her because she like what people picture an Irish dancer to look like. (criticize / look)
- Up to now, I always interested in discovering new cultures. (be)
- Ever since this artist her new video last week, people whether it's cultural appropriation or not. (release / debate)

16. The Kansas City Chiefs numerous complaints by the local Indigenous community but they their traditions yet. (receive / change)