Keeping order. Тест 1

1. Guess the country:
In 2004, this country fired 30,000 police officers (almost the entire traffic police force) due to corruption and built glass police stations to encourage an image of transparency. Since then crime has dropped and the public confidence in the police has risen drastically.

A) the Ukraine

B) Georgia

C) Russia

2. Local police have shot only 4 people to death in 25 years.

A) Finland

B) New Zealand

C) Poland

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. In the process of trying to catch serial killer Andrei Chikatilo, the police ended up solving more than 1000 unrelated crimes, including 95 murders and 245 rapes.

A) the Soviet Union

B) the Russian Federation

C) the Ukraine

4. After capturing Robert Black, a serial killer of children in 1963, the arresting police officer found his own daughter tied and gagged in the back of the killer's van.

A) Scotland

B) Wales

C) England

D) Northern Ireland

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Police detectives in this country have worn suits for more than 100 years. Dressing formally is "psychological armor"; it "establishes a barrier between them and the messiness" of police work according to psychologists.

A) the USA

B) Russia

C) Great Britain

6. Police fire paint-balls at fleeing vehicles so that other police vehicles can see them and identify them at a later date if they get away. The paint is bright orange and difficult to remove

A) Great Britain

B) Japan

C) Norway

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. In 2008, Lamborghini gave the state police the world's fastest police car, a Gallardo LP560-4, which was equipped with a video surveillance camera, gun racks, GPS, organ transplant cooler (in the luggage compartment) and defibrillator. It was crashed the following year.

A) Italy

B) Spain

C) France

8. The Blue Code of Silence is an unwritten rule among police officers not to report on another colleague's errors, misconducts, or crimes.

A) in the USA

B) in Great Britain

C) in Canada

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. Police can reject police officers that score too high in IQ claiming that "those who scored too high could get bored with police work".

A) The USA

B) Canada

C) Australia

10. Police officers who misbehave or break the law are forced to wear Hello Kitty armbands.

A) Thailand

B) Japan

C) China

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. Read the sentences and insert numbers in appropriate places.

1. [1]_____percent of the law enforcement officers in the United States are women.
2. American law enforcement agents only solve around [2]_____% of all reported crime.
3. The father of modern policing is Sir Robert Peel, who spent [3]_____ years fighting for the establishment of the London Metropolitan Police in the early 1800s. In addition to starting the British police, Peel served twice as Prime Minister of the United Kingdom.
4. Nearly [4]_____% of London's police officers don't carry firearms.
5. The most officers to die in a single day in America died during the September 11 attacks of 2001. [5]_____ officers died responding to the emergency

A) 72	D) 30
B) 90	E) 12
C) 21

LIVEWORKSHEETS