1. LISTENING

Carolina talks about the great love story in her life.

Listen to the mp3 file and answer true/false for each question.

1. They first met four or five years ago.
   True
   False

2. They met for the second time about five years ago.
   True
   False

3. Enrico was sitting at a table chatting to some friends.
   True
   False

4. Enrico spoke first in the bar.
   True
   False

5. Carolina was surprised that Enrico recognised her after so many years.
   True
   False

6. They went for a pizza the following week.
   True
   False

7. Their daughter Sabelle is 6 months old.
   True
   False

8. Enrico chose their daughter's name.
   True
   False

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. -ing And -ed Adjectives
- WHAT THE FOLLOWING VIDEO:

There are two types of adjectives in English.

"Active Adjectives" are those that end in -ing. Consider a television show which is boring. This TV show causes a feeling in us, who watch is.

"Passive Adjectives" are those that end in -ed. The TV show makes us feel bored. The TV show causes the feeling - we are the ones who have the feeling.

A laughing man - a man who is laughing.
An interesting book - a book that causes interest.
An amusing movie - a movie that is funny, causes amusement.

but...

A frightened cat - a cat who has fear of something else, frightened by something.
A surprised expression - on the face of a person who is surprised by something/someone.
A damaged car - the car has damage caused by something else: another car maybe, a criminal.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- Choose the best adjective to describe the situation in each sentence.

surprising / tired/ boring/ disgusting/ terrified/ interesting

1. Carol thought she saw a ghost. Her hands were shaking.

2. The documentary last night was great. I learned so much about African animals!

3. John fell asleep at the back of the class. His teacher's voice was dull and made John very tired.

4. It's a miracle. I expected to lose my job today but they gave me a promotion!

5. The cat opened one eye and then fell asleep again under the table.

6. Lindsay took the pizza out of the fridge. It was old and the cheese on top was green!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. 'So' and 'Such' Vocabulary Gap Fill Exercise

- Fill the spaces in these sentences that use "so" and "such" using the correct word from the list.

wallet - unbelievable - slowly - steak - gracefully - fat - lies – greed

1. I ate such a large _____ for dinner, I can't eat anything else.
2. The thief told the police such an _____ story that they began laughing.
3. The ballet star danced so _____ and got a standing ovation at the end.
4. Why do you tell me such big _____ and think I'll believe you?
5. The cow was so _____ that it couldn't fit through the gate.
6. I don't understand such _____ in people. They want everything for themselves!
7. The building collapsed so _____ that everyone escaped in time.
8. Why do you need such a big _____? Are you rich?

LIVEWORKSHEETS