

DIALOGUE A

(1:00 - 2:11)

A: Hello there.

B: Oh! Hello. Coming down in stair rods, isn't it?

A: Yes, I hope you don't mind me asking but ... shouldn't you be at home.

B: Oh yes. I should but I haven't quite worked out how to find one.

A: Well, where are your parents?

B: Oh they died when I was small. All I have left is my aunt.

A: And where's she?

B: Darkest peru. In the home for retired bears.

A: How did you get here?

B: I stowed away in a life boat.

A: Cool!

B: And ate marmalade. Did you know bears like marmalade?

A: I didn't even know bears could talk.

B: Oh! Well, I'm a very rare bear. There aren't many of us left.

A: What are you going to do now?

B: Well, I thought I would probably just sleep over there in that bin.

A: Why don't we find you some help?

B: Oh yes, please. If you're sure it's no trouble.

A: Of course, it isn't.

DIALOGUE B

(0:15 - 0:59)

A: Potter.

B: Oh, this can't be good.

A: Enjoying ourselves, are we?

B: I had a free period this morning professor.

A: So I noticed. I would think you would want to fill it with potions or is it no longer your ambition to become an Auror?

B: It was, but I was told I had to get an "Outstanding" in my O.W.L.

A: So you did when Professor Snape was teaching potions. However, Professor Slughorn is perfectly happy to accept new students with "exceeds expectations".

B: Brilliant. Um...Well, I'll head there straightaway.

A: Oh, good, good. Potter, take Weasley with you. He looks far too happy over there.

DIALOGUE C

(0:01 - 1:33)

A: Forky? Where are you? Forky? Forky? Where are you?

B: Carry me?

A: No.

B: Why do I have to be a toy?

A: Because you have Bonnie's name written on the bottom of your sticks.

B: Why do I have Bonnie's name written on the bottom of my sticks?

A: Because she...Look, she plays with you all the time, right?

B: Ugh. Yes.

A: And who does she sleep with every night?

B: The big white fluffy thing?

A: No, not her pillow. You. All right, Forky. You have to understand how lucky you are right now. You're Bonnie's toy. You are going to help create happy memories... that will last for the rest of her life.

B: Huh? What?

A: Doing this for Bonnie, you're doing it for Bonnie. Okay, like it or not, you are a toy. Maybe you don't like being one, but you are one nonetheless. Which means you are going to be there for Andy when he...

B: Who's Andy?

A: I mean, Bonnie. You have to be there for Bonnie. That is your job.

B: Well, what's your job?

A: Well, right now, it's to make sure you do yours.

B: Carry me?

A: No!
