
Stopping something

Choose the best word or phrase in bold to complete each sentence, using the definitions in italics after each sentence to help you.

1. To stop your hard disk becoming too full, you should delete / dissuade / sever any unwanted programmes. (to cut out part of a document, a computer file, etc.)
2. The new government plans to back out of / repeal / suppress the existing legislation. (to officially end a law so that it is no longer valid)
3. Increasing fuel prices does not usually deter / quash / rescind people from using their cars. (to discourage people from doing something)
4. The college tries to cancel / dissuade / give up students from taking exams which are not suitable for them. (to persuade someone not to do something)
5. The committee decided to deny / remove / rescind its earlier resolution on the use of its premises. (to cancel a contract or agreement)
6. State monopolies often back out of / suppress / suspend all forms of economic competition. (to stop an activity, usually by making laws or using your authority)
7. The Cornucopian government made the sudden decision to dissuade / rescind / sever diplomatic relations with their neighbouring countries. (to end something such as a friendship or a connection completely and permanently)
8. You should never deny / put an end to / turn down a good job when it's offered to you. (to refuse something which is offered)
9. We decided to pull out of / remove / rescind the competition when three of our team members became ill. (to decide not to support or be part of a project or activity after you have agreed to)

10. Oil and petroleum companies deny / scrap / repeal that they are harming the environment. (to state that something someone has said is not true or correct)
11. Travel companies do not normally give refunds if their customers cancel / put an end to / sever their holiday at the last moment. (to stop something which has been planned)
12. It's important to deter / remove / quash rumours before too many people hear them. (to stop something from continuing, especially things people say or believe: rumours, doubts, speculation, etc.)
13. You should delete / give up / suppress fast food and other foods that have a high fat content if you want to lose weight. (to stop doing something that you have done for quite a long time)
14. They finally agreed to dissuade / put an end to / quash their long-standing dispute and try to work together instead. (to stop something which has been going on for a long time)
15. I would be grateful if you would deter / remove / repeal my name from your mailing list. (to take something away)
16. The factory management had to deny / suspend / turn down operations because of some serious health and safety issues. (to officially stop something for a short time)
17. We were forced to give up / rescind / scrap the plans when we realised they would not work. (to decide not to continue with something such as a plan or event, often because there is a problem with some aspect of it)
18. I believe that the best way to delete / curb / repeal inflation is to increase interest rates on borrowing. (to control or limit something that is harmful)