

Listening

You will hear Janine talk about her new family hobby, upcycling. For questions 1–10, complete the sentences with a word or short phrase. You must not change the words you hear.

Janine started upcycling furniture three years ago because her 1 fancied trying it out.

Janine's first thought when she saw the lamp was to 2 .

To upcycle the lamp, they first tried to use 3 and 4 .

Jack suggests that 5 is the best way to learn how to upcycle.

The most difficult pieces they've made were a 6 and an 7 but they managed both of them.

8 are the most expensive tools they've needed so far.

Janine says the family feels like a 9 since they started upcycling.

Janine says what she finds most difficult about upcycling is 10 of an item.

Speaking

- 1 Have you ever upcycled anything? If not, would you like to?
- 2 Which activity in the pictures would you find ...
 - most boring? why?
 - most frustrating? why?
 - most rewarding? why?
 - easiest? why?
- 3 Choose a piece of furniture in your classroom. Work together to decide how you would upcycle it, using the vocabulary from this worksheet. Present your ideas to the classroom.