A: Why do we get so much _____? It's not fair! My dad says he didn't have much homework when he was at school.

B: Yeah, my parents say the same. They didn't spend much time doing homework when they were young, so they had _____ _____ _____. But that doesn't mean their homework was easy. They had to remember more facts because they didn't have the internet to _____ things.

A: That's true. They only had a few books to fi nd information in. I think the internet makes homework _____ _____, but it takes more time now.

A: Hi. Did you enjoy the trip to the football match?

B: Yes, it was great! The fi nal score was 2–2, which wasn't bad. Some people were a bit disappointed, but I was just glad our _____didn't lose! We're really lucky that our teachers take us on trips like that. It's a lot of work for them. Unfortunately, some students didn't behave well and the teachers got a bit _____ _____them. Those students may be really disapointed next time because the teachers may not allow them to go on the next trip! I defi nitely want to go again!

A: Hi, Gemma. Is that your new guitar?

B: Yes. My parents bought it for me, but I don't know what to do. I love learning it and I enjoy my lessons at school, but I never get _____ _____. I think maybe I should change and learn something diff erent, like the _____.

A: No, don't do that. You love the guitar. It's a diffi cult instrument to learn. B: I know. And I don't think I can spend any more time practising. A: Why don't you join the school _____? Playing with other people is more fun than _____on your own. B: That's a good idea. Thanks.

A: Do you think schools will be very diff erent in fi ft y years?

B: Hmm ... I think they'll be diff erent in some ways, but not others. I think people will learn the same subjects, like maths and _____. A: Yes, you're probably right that the subjects won't change much. But the way we learn might change. I mean, schools might be bigger, with _____ of students.

B: No, I don't agree. I think they'll probably be smaller because it will be possible for students to study at home and have lessons with their teachers online.

A: That's true. That would be cool!
