

Grade 3 Practice Quiz

Here are some short but common words that are important to learn, but they are also tricky.

Fill the blanks with the following words:

a, an, some, any

Tips:

- “Any” is used in questions and for negative phrases
(Do you want any bread? No, there isn’t any bread.)
- “Some” is used for plural. (I would like some apples!)
- “A” is singular. “An” is used like a liaison (an__apple).
