Exercise 5. Look at the graph again and read the student's report. Then complete the report with the correct form of the verbs in brackets.

The line graph compares the number of people living in five cities in the world between 1970 and the present.

On the whole, the population of these cities (grow) a lot since 1970. The number of residents in Lagos and Beijing (rise) the most, while the number in Moscow and Tehran (increase) too.

In Lagos, the number of residents (rise) from about 1 million in 1970 to 2 million 1975, but since then the population (grow) quickly from 2 million in 1975 to 18 million at the present time. Similarly, the number of people living in Beijing also (increase) from 8 million in 1970 to just under 20 million in 2010.

By contrast, the population of New York City (stay) the same since 1970. During the 1970s it fell (fall) from 8 million to about 6.5 million. The number of residents then (remain) at about 7.5 million between 2000 and 2010, and since then it (grow) slowly to around 8 million people at the present time.

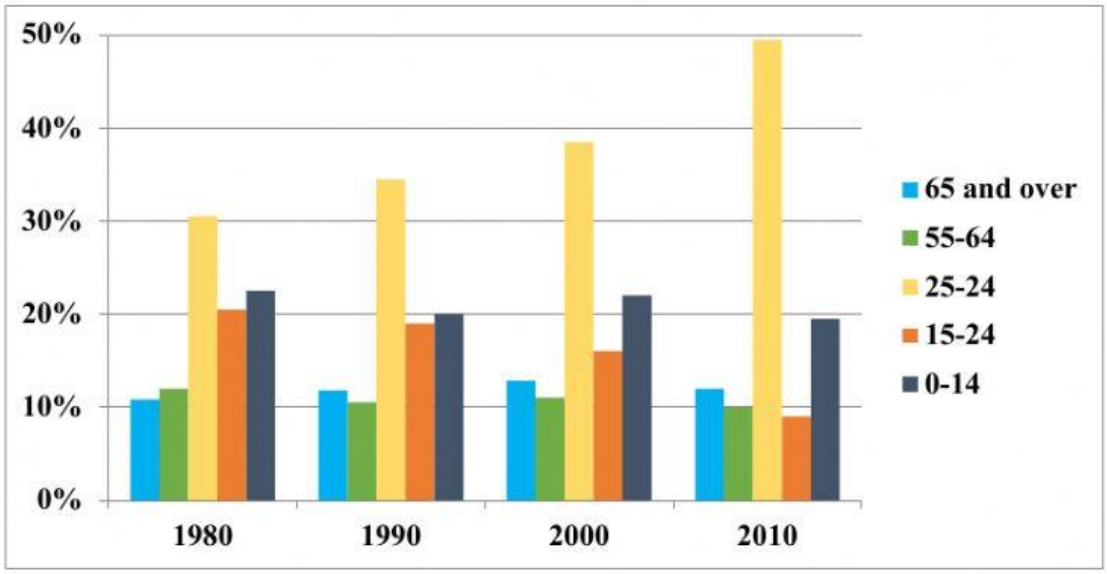
The age of the population of Ireland between 1980 and 2010



The bar chart compares the different ages of people living in Ireland between 1980 and 2010.

All in all, the size of the 25–54 age group increased the most about/over the period while the size of the two younger age groups decreased a little bit. The number of people in/to the two older age groups stayed about the same.

The 25–54 age group grew from/over approximately a third of the population in 1980 to nearly half of the population in 2010. By contrast, the 0–14 age group fell from/in just over 25% in 1980 from/to just under 20% in 2010. Similarly, the 15–24 age group dropped from just over 20% of the population in 1980 to just over/under 10% of the population in 2010.

The older two age groups did not increase or decrease much. The size of the 65 and over age group remained at/in about 12%, whereas the size of the 55–64 age group only fell from/under about 12% at/to about 10% of the population.

Exercise 7. Read the information. Then look at the graph. Put the paragraphs in the correct order to complete the report.

The report should have:

- An introduction that includes 2 or 3 main features of the chart.
- Two paragraphs that provide details of the main features mentioned in the introduction. (The main features are the most important pieces of information on the chart.)
