

Change the verbs to past simple tense.

For these regular past simple verbs, just add -ed.

You may have to make a small change to the verb.

1.

I stay home a lot.

Last weekend I home all weekend.

2.

I play volleyball every Thursday.

Last week I volleyball on Wednesday.

3.

I like grapes.

Before I grapes but now I do not like them.

4.

I usually cook dinner.

Last night my husband dinner.

5.

I call my mother every day.

Last night I my mother.

6.

I enjoy exercising at the gym.

Last weekend I exercising at the gym.

7.

We use the computer a lot.

We the computer last night for six hours.

8.

She always works hard.

Last week she worked extra hard.

9.

They study English together.

They English for one hour last night.

10.

The little baby smiles all the time.

11.

The little baby cries all the time.

The little baby all night.

12.

He asks lots of questions.

This morning he lots of questions.

13.

They want a new car.

They a new car but they bought an old one.

14.

You walk two kilometres every day.

Yesterday you ran ten kilometres!

15.

She often helps me.

Last week she watered me in the garden.