PRACTICE Read the paragraph, inserting logical connecting words for comparing and contrasting.

My husband, Jack, generally appreciates fashion, but we don't always agree on clothes and what to wear. I like to shop in small boutiques; ..... , my husband also appreciates ..... <sup>1</sup> the attention a shopper gets in a small store. ..... , I always buy funky, trendy ..... <sup>2</sup> clothes. ..... <sup>3</sup> , Jack is more conservative. And it won't be surprising for anyone to learn that ..... my husband, I tend to like loud colors and bold prints, ..... <sup>4</sup> he prefers a more subdued look. ..... <sup>5</sup> I feel self-confident that whatever I wear will be OK ..... <sup>6</sup> ..... <sup>7</sup> Jack can be a little self-conscious and always tries to wear non-controversial clothes. But, as they say, "opposites attract," and we both like the way the other person dresses, even if our tastes for ourselves aren't the same.
