

Roll No.: _____

Name: _____

Section: _____

ENGLISH

SIMILE & METAPHOR

CLASS: 5

A Simile is a comparison between two things using the words 'like' or 'as'. A METAPHOR is also a comparison between two things to show how they are alike (the same) in some way... BUT Metaphors do not use 'as' or 'like' to compare.

Activity#1. Choose the right answer.

We were packed in the room like sardines.

Her eyes are jewels sparkling in the sun. _____

Shoib Akhter is Rawalpindi Express. _____

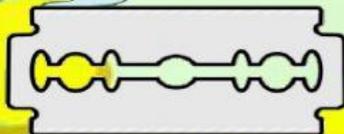

He is as busy as a bee. _____

Activity#2. Look at the pictures and write the simile .

i.

ii.

iii.

Activity#3. Choose the right meaning from the options for the following metaphors.

i. My legs were rubber after walking all over the big city.

a) My legs are made of rubber.

b) My legs are weak and tired.

ii. His teeth are white pearls.

a) His teeth are the colour of white pearls.

b) He has fake pearl teeth.

iii. The thief was a snake slithering in to steal the jewels.

a) The thief changed into a snake.

b) The thief crept in very quietly and unnoticed.

Activity#3. Match the simile with their meaning.

as strong as an ox

as tall as a giraffe

as light as a feather

as cunning as a fox

as sharp as a razor

as healthy as a horse

of very little weight

very sharp

very powerful

with a lot of height

very clever

very fit