THE FOX AND THE CAT

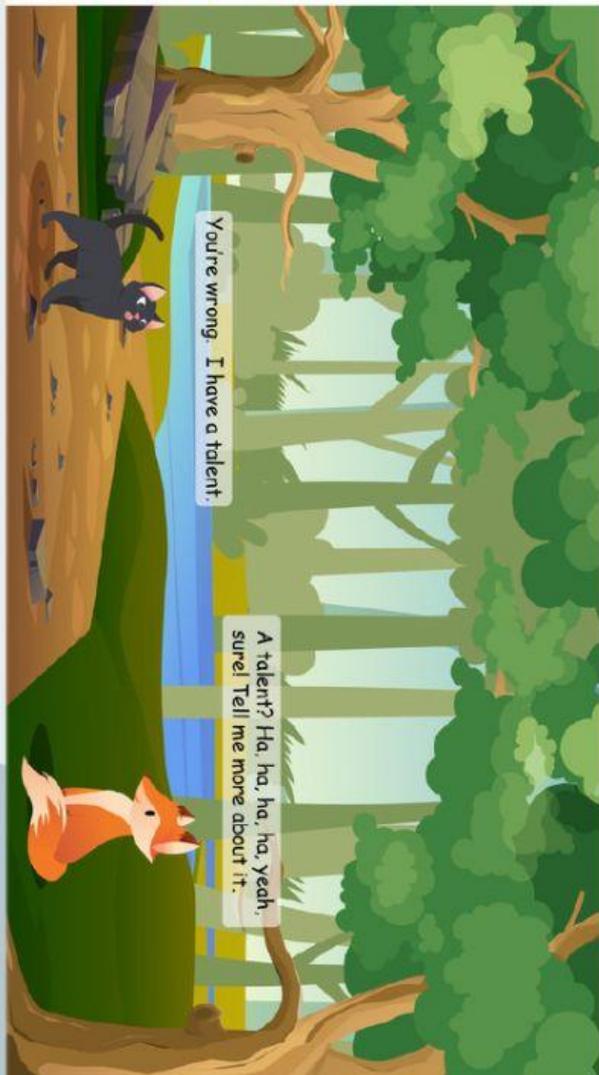

Good day, Mrs. Fox. How are you on this beautiful and sunny day?

Mmm, can't you see that I'm sleeping?

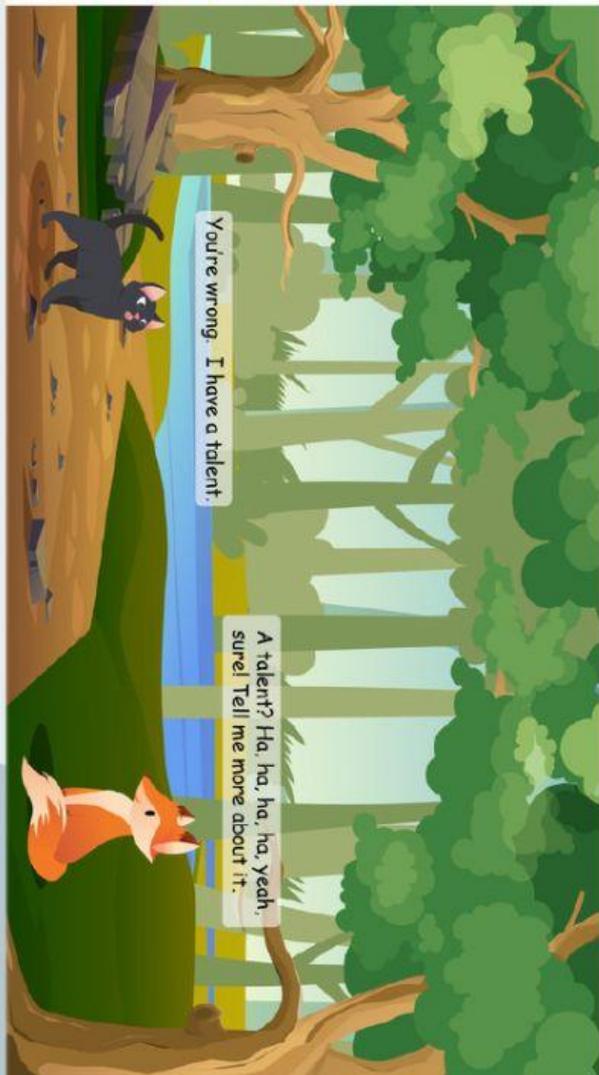

Oh, no. I can do a lot more things than that. But you haven't answered my question.

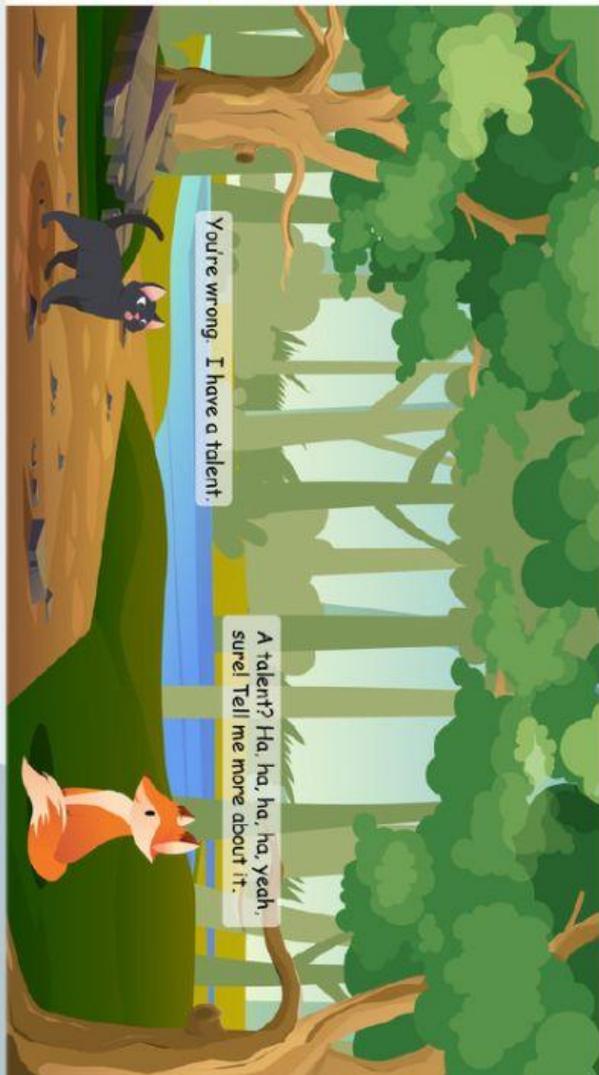

Why should I? In fact, I shouldn't be talking to you! You're nobody! You don't know anything! You're useless! You don't even have a life! Ha, ha, ha, ha.

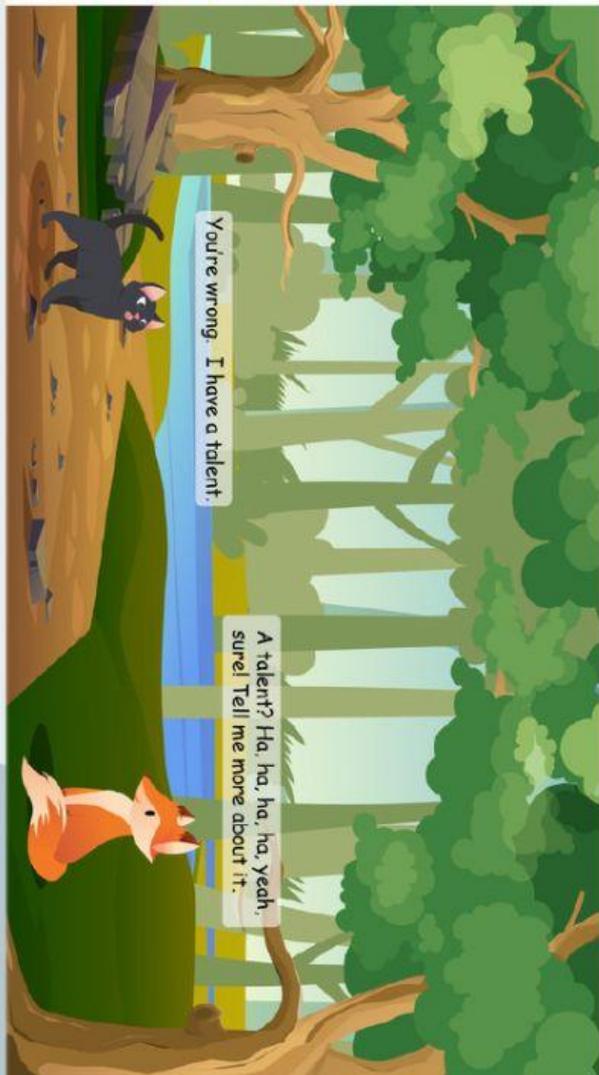

Oh, I'm sorry, but as soon as I saw you I thought to myself: oh, she's so intelligent and so clever. Everybody loves her!

Ha, ha, ha, ha, I didn't know you had a brain. Go away. Hunt mice that are the only thing you can do.

You're wrong. I have a talent.

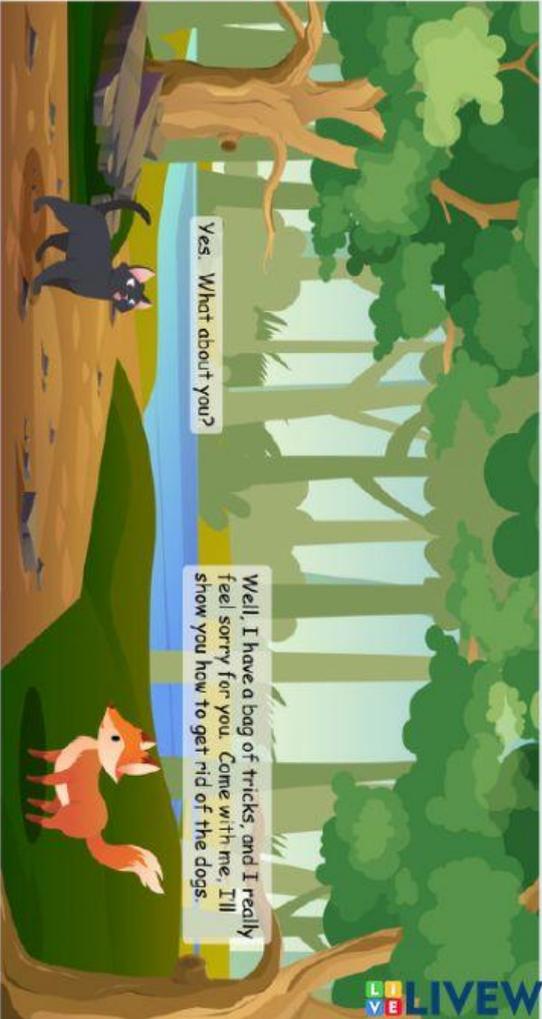

A talent? Ha, ha, ha, ha, yeah, sure! Tell me more about it.

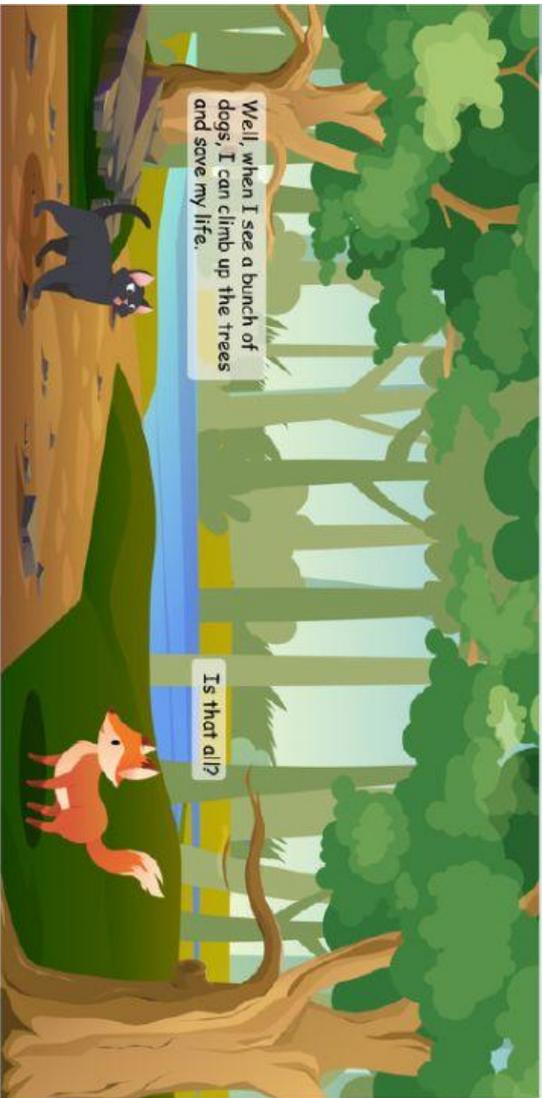

THE FOX AND THE CAT

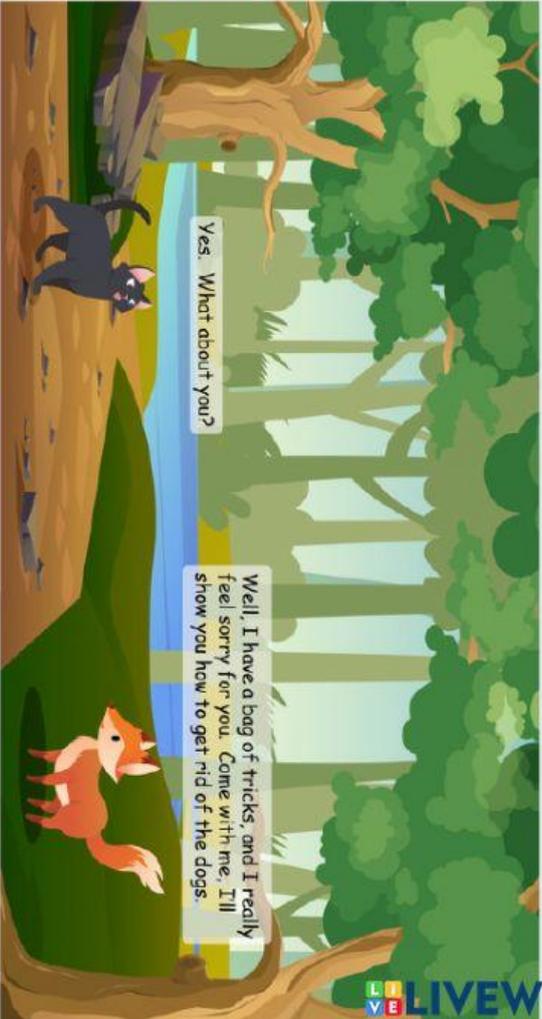

Well, when I see a bunch of dogs, I can climb up the trees and save my life.

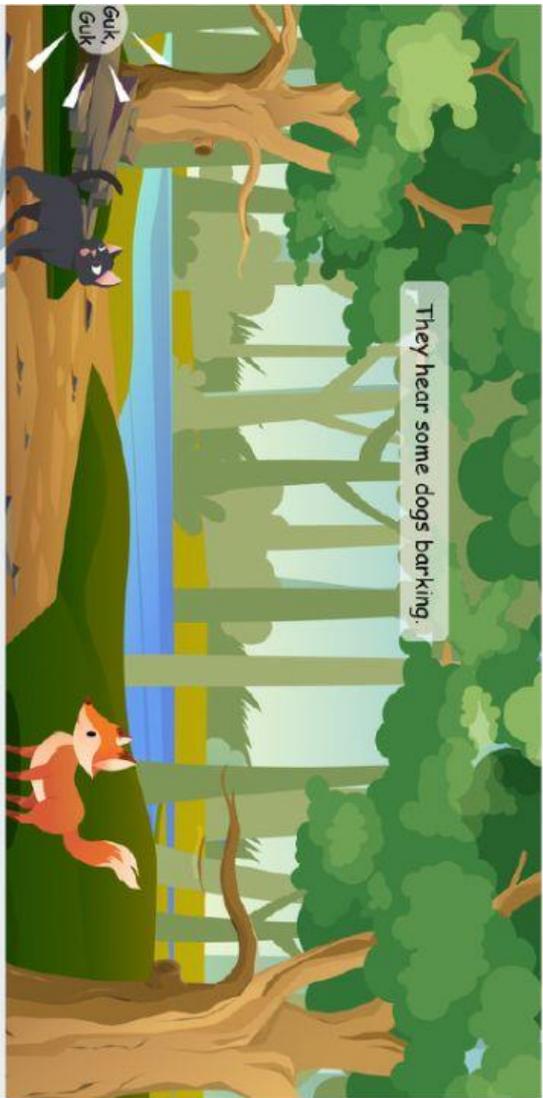

Is that all?

Yes. What about you?

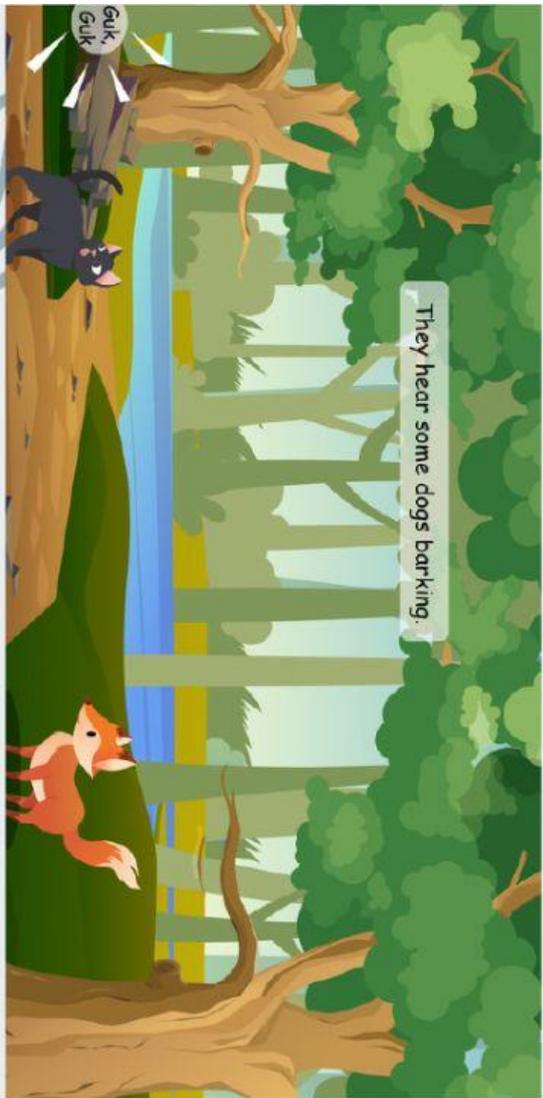

Well, I have a bag of tricks, and I really feel sorry for you. Come with me, I'll show you how to get rid of the dogs.

They hear some dogs barking.

Wait a minute. Did you hear that?

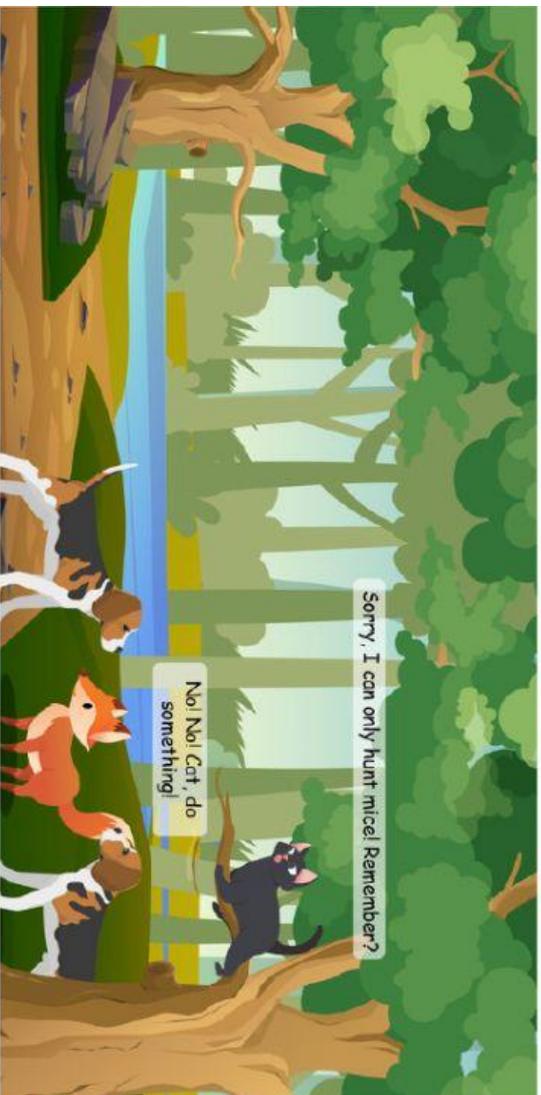

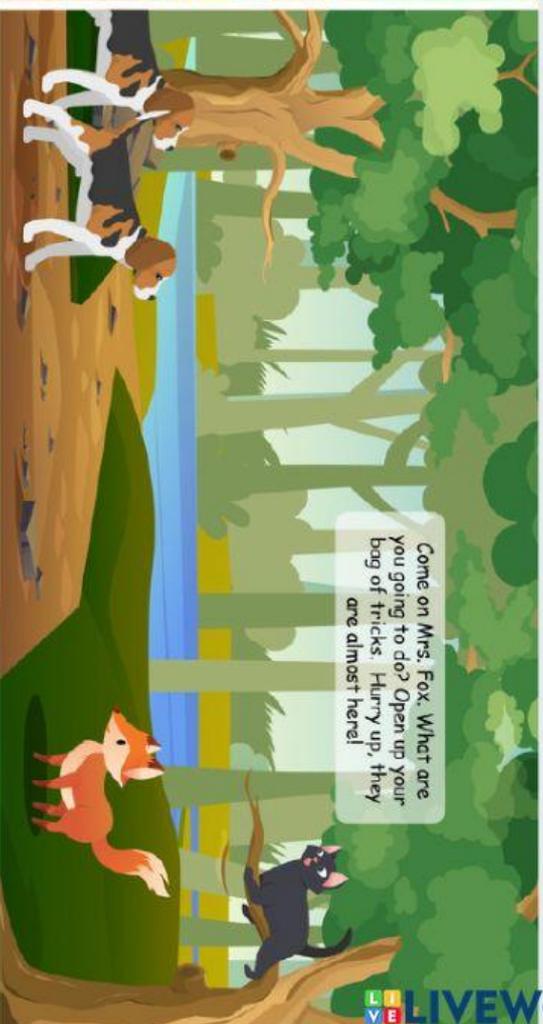

Don't tell me you're afraid of those barking dogs?

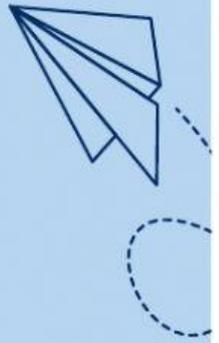

Guk, Guk
