

1. Put the right forms of the following verbs in the context:

confuse intrigue embarrass amaze frighten fascinate

1. He was totally _____ by that idea and wanted to know more.
2. I'm _____ by the trivia of everyday life.
3. There are some _____ moments in this film. Most of the time I was really scared.
4. Men are often too _____ or ashamed to ask for help.
5. I could see that he was clearly _____ because he did not answer any of my questions.
6. I'm _____ you've never heard of the Rolling Stones.

2. What's the opposite?

- | | |
|----------------|-------|
| 1. comfortable | |
| 2. positive | |
| 3. optimistic | |
| 4. happy | |
| 5. exciting | |
| 6. nervous | |

3. Match the following adjectives with the definitions:

neutral disgusted puzzled tense anxious indifferent blissful

..... not showing or feeling interest

- unable to relax because of nervousness, anxiety, or stimulation.
- unable to understand, confused
- feeling or showing worry, nervousness
- extremely happy; full of joy.
- feeling or expressing strong disapproval.
- not supporting side, not having any strong positive or negative features