

1. ADJECTIVES ENDING IN -LY

2. The _____ cat strolled down the street, capturing everyone's attention. (lively, lonely, lovely, ugly)
3. The two friends shared a _____ hug after not seeing each other for years. (friendly, brotherly, scholarly, costly)
4. He possessed a _____ physique, always impressing others with his strength and confidence. (manly, timely, holy, ungainly)
5. The cozy cottage had a _____ charm, making it the perfect retreat. She greeted me with a _____ smile and a warm embrace. (friendly, brotherly, manly, lively)
6. His _____ manners and caring nature won over everyone he met. (friendly, brotherly, manly, lively)
7. The football player's _____ physique made him stand out on the field. (friendly, brotherly, manly, lively)
8. The party was filled with _____ music, laughter, and dancing. (friendly, brotherly, manly, lively)
9. After moving to a new city, she felt _____ and longed for companionship. (lonely, lovely, costly, holy)
10. The bride looked absolutely _____ in her elegant wedding gown. (lonely, lovely, costly, holy)
11. The antique vase was incredibly _____ but worth every penny. (lonely, lovely, costly, holy)
12. The old church was considered a _____ place of worship in the community. (lonely, lovely, costly, holy)
13. The small cottage had a _____ charm that made it feel cozy and inviting. (homely, ungainly, scholarly, masterly)
14. The professor was known for his _____ knowledge and insightful lectures. (homely, ungainly, scholarly, masterly)

15. The _____ dog wagged its tail and approached us with a warm smile. (friendly / brotherly / manly / lively)
16. John and Mark have always had a _____ bond, supporting and caring for each other. (friendly / brotherly / manly / lively)
17. The couple enjoyed a _____ dinner at an upscale restaurant to celebrate their anniversary. (lonely / lovely / costly / holy)
18. The pilgrims traveled to the sacred site to seek blessings from the _____ shrine. (lonely / lovely / costly / holy)
19. The _____ student spent hours in the library, engrossed in books and research. (homely / ungainly / scholarly / masterly)
20. The chef's _____ presentation of the dish impressed both the eye and the palate. (timely / shapely / ugly / lively)

Ms. Minh Ha - 0982197148