

Homework

Fill in with: past simple, past continuous, past perfect or past perfect continuous.

1. Yesterday, as I _____ (walk) to school, I _____ (see) my friend Lisa waiting at the bus stop. She waved at me, and we decided to walk together. While we _____ (walk), we _____ (talk) about our weekend plans.

2. Later in the evening, my family and I _____ (watch) a movie when suddenly, the power _____ (go) out. We _____ (have) to light some candles and _____ (finish) the movie in a dimly lit room. It was quite an adventurous experience.

3. Meanwhile, my mom _____ (cook) dinner in the kitchen. As she _____ (chop) vegetables, the phone _____ (ring). It was my cousin calling to share some exciting news. My mom _____ (answer) the call while she _____ (continue) to prepare the meal.

4. In the afternoon, my friends and I _____ (play) soccer in the park. We _____ (have) a great time when it _____ (start) raining heavily. We quickly _____ (run) for cover and _____ (wait) for the rain to stop before continuing the game.

5. Last night, my brother _____ (study) for an important exam. He _____ (study) for hours, but he _____ (forget) to bring his textbook. He _____ (realize) his mistake when he _____ (reach) for it and found it missing. He _____ (have) to rely on his notes and _____ (hope) for the best.

6. In school, the students _____ (work) on their science project in the lab. They _____ (conduct) experiments and _____ (record) their observations when the teacher _____ (announce) an extension for the deadline. The students _____ (feel) relieved and _____ (continue) their work with renewed enthusiasm.

7. During the weekend, our family _____ (have) a picnic in the park. We _____ (enjoy) the delicious food when it _____ (start) to get dark. We quickly _____ (pack) up our things and _____ (head) back home, cherishing the memorable moments we had shared.

8. As I _____ (wait) for the bus this morning, I _____ (realize) that I _____ (leave) my wallet at home. I _____ (panic) for a moment but then _____ (remember) that I _____ (have) some spare change in my backpack. I managed to catch the bus and _____ (make) it to school on time.