

PART A - For each of the following sentences, choose which sentence uses commas properly.

1)

- a. Kimberly was so excited to go to her friends house but, she had to finish her homework first.
- b. Kimberly was so excited, to go to her friends house, but she had to finish her homework first.
- c. Kimberly was so excited to go to her friends house, but she had to finish her homework first.
- d. Kimberly was so excited, to go to her friends house but she had to finish her homework first.

2)

- a. Instantly, Piper knew she had won, and it felt fantastic.
- b. Instantly Piper knew she had won, and it felt fantastic.
- c. Instantly, Piper knew she had won and it felt fantastic.
- d. Instantly Piper knew she had won and it felt fantastic.

3)

- a. “But Conrad was bullying Jasper,” Piper pleaded. “He shouldn’t be doing that!”
- b. “But Conrad was bullying Jasper”, Piper pleaded. “He shouldn’t be doing that!”
- c. “But Conrad was bullying Jasper” Piper pleaded, “He shouldn’t be doing that!”
- d. “But Conrad was bullying Jasper,” Piper pleaded. ,“He shouldn’t be doing that!”

4)

- a. I just can’t wait until, Wednesday, December 15, 2021!
- b. I just can’t wait until Wednesday December 15, 2021!
- c. I just can’t wait until Wednesday, December 15 2021!
- d. I just can’t wait until Wednesday, December 15, 2021!

5)

- a. When I go to the store I need to buy chicken ham, apples, and lettuce.
- b. When I go to the store I need to buy chicken, ham, apples and lettuce.
- c. When I go to the store I need to buy chicken ham apples, and lettuce.
- d. When I go to the store I need to buy chicken, ham, apples, and lettuce.