

classroom as well. This is why many students say that studying in an English_ speaking country greatly affects their English. Living with native speakers can help students learn important cultural information. This can help to prevent misunderstandings that can occur when people from different cultures live together.

Living with someone from another culture can be difficult. International students are usually excited when they first show up at their new homes, but after a few months they may start to think about their home countries and get homesick. Students who are homesick get depressed quickly. They might cry a lot or want to be alone. This makes it difficult for them to make friends and learn English
