

B Circle the correct answers.

1. If Messi were / would be taller, he could be a basketball player.
2. Joanna would travel by train if she would have to / had to go to Tel Aviv.
3. The police would arrest the thief if they found / would find him.
4. I would buy a new car if the bank would lend / lent me the money.
5. If Joe didn't take / wouldn't take sandwiches to school, he would be hungry all day.
6. If I were / was you, I wouldn't go out in this weather.
7. If I lost my phone, I went / would go to the police immediately.
8. They went / would go to the skate-park if they had a ride.
9. The cows would leave the field if the gate wouldn't be / weren't closed.
10. If the dog would stop / stopped barking, we would be able to hear the TV.

C Write sentences in the second conditional.

1. If / Israeli tourists / not speak / English, / they / find it hard / to manage abroad.

2. If / we / not go / to school, / what / we / do / all day?

3. If / I / not be / so tired today, / I / go see / a movie with my friends.

4. If / bus tickets / cost less, / people / not take / their cars so often.

5. If / I / be / you, / I / adopt / another dog

6. If / I / buy / a new pair of shoes, / maybe my feet / not hurt / anymore.

D Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. Use the second conditional.

1. Take my advice and hand in your homework on time.
If _____, I would hand in my homework on time.
2. Jerry wants to go to college, but he lives too far away.
If Jerry _____, he would go to college.
3. The library is closed today, so I can't exchange my book.
If the library _____, I could exchange my book.
4. Tameka doesn't have time to take yoga lessons twice a week.
If Tameka _____, she _____.
5. The boys want to play the new video game, but they don't know Russian.
If the boys _____, they _____.
6. Rex, Barry and Harry are too young to have a driver's license.
If Rex, Barry and Harry _____, they _____.
7. I suggest you ask your mother before you get a tattoo.
If I _____, I _____.
8. The subtitles are so small, I can't see them.
If _____, _____.
9. Nathan is so disorganized because he has a lot of pressure from school work.
If _____, _____.

E 1. Look at the pictures and complete each sentence using the second conditional.

If I were older, _____.

_____, I could win the race.

_____, I would play with him.

_____, I would buy one.