Read

A Read the text quickly. Answer the question.

Two children make ice pops. Why?

It's summer. David and Lesley play ball in the park. They run a lot, and they're hot, so they go home.

Think They run a lot.
They're hot.
Which is the cause?
Which is the effect?

"Can we have some cold soda, Mom?" say David and Lesley.
"No, kids," says Mom. "Soda isn't healthy. But I have an idea. Let's make ice pops!" she says.

"Get some juice, and add some fruit and a little sugar. Mix it all together, pour the mixture into plastic cups, and put them in the freezer." "OK, Mom," they say.

Think They make ice pops. Soda is unhealthy.
Which is the cause?
Which is the effect?

David and Lesley eat the cold ice pops. "Were they good?" asks Mom. "Yes, they were delicious!" they say. They're happy.
