

BIGFOOT

Word Formation Exercise

Use the word on the right to form a word that fits the gap.

There are some people who believe in the (1) _____ of Bigfoot, a (2) _____ ape-like creature that is supposed to live in the mountains in the USA. In 1967 some hunters claimed to have (3) _____ filmed such a creature. The brief film, showing a huge creature walking slowly through the undergrowth, was broadcast worldwide and caused quite a sensation. Many people say this as firm (4) _____ that Bigfoot is real.

But now researches have come to the (5) _____ that the film is merely a trick. After conducting a close (6) _____ of it, they claim to have identified a man-made fastener at the creature's waist. Bigfoot, is, therefore, (7) _____ to be anything more than a very large man dressed up in an animal suit.

Some Bigfoot fans remain unconvinced by the (8) _____, though. They claim it is extremely (9) _____ that something as small as a zip fastener could be reliably identified on such an old film. In (10) _____, they say that the creature caught on camera does not move like a human and that it is therefore (11) _____ a wild creature of nature. The debate goes on.
