

MUSIC GENRES

Join the music genre with its definition:

Pop music

comes from African-American communities of New Orleans, has a lot of improvisation, swing and blue notes.

Hip Hop Music

is dance music with catchy, rhythmic beats, played by instruments like drum sets, synthesizers, and bass guitars.

Jazz

is an American musical style that uses elements of folk, bluegrass, blues, and rural dance music.

Folk music

is a popular music, that is loved by a big audience.

Disco

is a musical form that mixes rhyme, rhythmic speech, and street talk.

Rock Music

is developed by African Americans and Latino Americans, has a strong, rhythmic beat and a rapping vocal track.

Country music

is traditional and generally rural music that was passed through families.

Opera

is also called independent music, produced independently from commercial record labels.

Heavy Metal

has a strong beat and is played by instruments with loud sound like the electric guitar and electric bass.

Rapping

is a mix of country music and rhythm and blues. This music appeared in 50-s in the USA.

Indie music

is a type of rock music with a very strong beat, strong volume played very loud on electric guitars.

Rock and Roll

is a combination of vocal and orchestral music, drama, visual arts and dance.