

I Love English 4, Unit 7 Mystery.

Prepositional phrases

Complete the sentences with the correct preposition.

after for in on up to out off from with

Sorry, but I can't wait you any longer. I need to set before it gets dark.

Who can find why Ben is absent from the football training?

Let's keep touch. I hope to hear you soon.

Where are your mates, Joe? What has happened them?

Mum told me for playing my music so loud.

I can't make my mind what to do
..... school.

What shall we play? – I'm for hide-and-seek.

My brother loves animals. He is especially keen
..... horses.

Some pets, example, don't like fireworks.

Mike isn't here yet but he's his way.

Kelly, why don't you listen me?

Does this book belong you or is it Ben's?

I searched my ticket but didn't find it.

Are you happy your score?

