Check up

1. How to become a language trainer? Which certificate/s do you need?
2. 4 steps (video) - how to conduct English lessons?
3. What websites/teaching resources can you give examples of?

   How to conduct a speaking lesson: give examples of 1 or 2 activities that you can do/use.
4. Responsibility
5. Speaking exercise for B1 students.

Part II

1. Student speaking time vs. teacher speaking time (sst vs tst)
2. Student-teacher relation
   - be friendly but not too friendly
   - don't waste time
   - "powiem szybko po polsku"
   - avoid speaking Polish except for ...
   - with higher level students you can explain grammar and vocab in English
3. What features of character are useful in this job? Which ones do you have? Which ones you should work on?
4. Cancel or not to cancel? Strict and clear or flexible?
5. Making notes :)
6. Rock your English - it's a must.
7. Your wages?
8. Online or stationary?
9. Books?
10. Your ad - what should you put in there?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

11. Communicators and teaching platforms (discord/skype/zoom/teams, etc...)
12. Teacher-parent relationship :)
13. Prepare/find 4 speaking activities/games: two for A2 level and two for B1 level (read the description first:
14. Prepare a speaking warm-up based on -ed/-ing adjectives and a few speaking questions based on technology and place of living.
15. Find a short video (2-5 minutes) for B1 students and prepare a listening task based on it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS