Reading (simple past)

Listen to this audio and repeat when you want.

Yesterday Carlos was drinking a delicious watermelon juice at the restaurant with his classmates because his family didn´t want to go with his friends to the same place. To be honest, Carlos wanted to be there alone with his friends, so his family let him go there without them.

It was an excellent moment because everyone enjoyed everything.

When you know great people, you can have a great moment to share. His classmates are wonderful and amazing people, for example, he can say that they like to talk about different topics, this point is really important because in this way you can have a funny conversation with them! Now , Caros has a question for you,

Do you have friends like them?

Questions exercise – listen and answer

a. Are you a student?

_____

b. Is your mother here with you?

_____

c. Are your best friend and your cat in the kitchen?

_____

d. Do you want to get an excellent job next year?

_____

e. Does my mother like to drink wine every Friday?

_____

f. Does your favorite teacher give good lessons?

_____

g. Did we feel good today in this country like this?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

h. Were people walking in the Street every morning?

_____

i. Was superman the best hero when you were a child?

_____

j. Where was your jacket last Sunday?

_____

k. When did you go to visit the library?

_____

l. Why are you studying English?

_____

Describe your best friend use 60 words

LIVEWORKSHEETS