Reading Part 6

For each question, write the correct answer.

Write one word for each gap.

The winner of the Young Film-maker of the Year contest shares some tips about film-making on his blog

Firstly, you don't need a lot of expensive equipment (1) ..... make a film. If you can't afford a video camera, then use your smartphone.

A great way to learn is by watching lots (2) ..... films. Study the characters, the acting, how the camera is used, and copy the techniques you think are the (3) ..... successful.

I recommend keeping your initial film-making projects simple so use what you've got around you – your home, your street and your friends. Also, begin with short films. A good story can (4) ..... told in just a few minutes.

Get advice and ideas from people (5) ..... opinion you respect, but at the same time trust yourself and make the film that you want.

Finally, make sure people know about your film. Easy ways to do this include posting (6) ..... social media and looking for young film-maker competitions to enter!

Writing Part 2

Your English teacher has asked you to write a story.
Your story must begin with this sentence:

She and the other competitors were waiting to hear the result of the film competition.

Write your story in about 100 words.

LIVEWORKSHEETS