

Student Motivation Strategies

Match the strategies to the statements.

Gamification

Collaborative Learning

Real Life

Provide Resources

Showcase Student Work

1. This strategy is used when the student is struggling to relate to hypothetical situations.
2. Encourages competition among learners as motivation.
3. When the students finish their activities, the teacher hangs them to the walls for everyone to see.
4. The teacher hands the students the materials they will use for the lesson.
5. Each student has a responsibility in the group, they need to work together to achieve a goal.

Select the correct answer

1. The teacher believes in the capacities of the students to excel in assignments, tasks, or any academic activities.
2. Students get to move around while performing activities. This strategy is ideal for kinesthetic learners.
3. Learners have a variety of options to choose from when it comes to the activities to be carried out depending on their preference.
4. Students require feedback as soon as possible to keep themselves motivated to improve, both “good” and “bad” grades are accepted.
5. The teacher is excited to teach a new lesson, and their students can feel that excitement as well.