

The Prince and the Pauper

(adapted from a story by Mark Twain)

Once upon a time, there was a prince called Edward. He lived in a castle, but he didn't have any friends. One day, Edward saw a poor boy called Tom. 'Come into the castle and play with me!' he said.

'What's it like to be a prince?' asked Tom. 'I've got an idea!' said Edward. The boys decided to swap clothes.

'You look like me now!' said Edward. 'And you look like me!' said Tom.

The boys were hungry, so Edward went to find some food. He forgot that he had Tom's clothes on! An angry servant pushed Edward out of the castle. 'Stop! I'm the prince!' said Edward, but the servant just laughed.

Tom waited and waited. Where's Edward? he thought. He walked round the castle. He went up and down the stairs. He walked through the halls and across the huge rooms, but he couldn't find his new friend.

Tom was very tired. He returned to Edward's bedroom, got into the huge bed and went to sleep. In the morning, a servant walked through the door. 'Good morning, Prince Edward,' said the servant. 'Here are your clothes.' The clothes were beautiful, but they weren't very comfortable! Where is Edward? thought Tom.

Outside the castle, Edward had a terrible night! In the morning, he went back to the castle. Tom was very happy to see him! 'Prince Edward!' said Tom.

What? 'You are Prince Edward!' the servant said to Tom.

At that moment, the queen came into the castle. 'Edward? What are you doing in those old clothes?' she asked.

'Sorry, Mum,' apologised Edward.

'We were playing a game, Your Majesty!' said Tom. Everyone was very surprised. Then they all laughed. After that, Edward and Tom became very good friends.
